

I want to express my opposition to any relaxation of rules governing acquisitions, mergers or consolidations that could result in greater concentration of media under the control of large corporations. I believe this trend represents a profound danger to the freedom and diversity of information so essential to our democratic society. Thank you for your consideration.